

HONEY FESTIVAL 5 MAY

11-4pm

Highlights

- Discover how to become a beekeeper
- Have fun with the SCITECH gang (lots of fun for the kids)
- Beekeeper talks at 11am, 1pm , 3pm
- Watch beekeepers loading their trucks
- Meet the lovely Honey girl
- DEC staff with forest news
- Scientist from UWA with lots of bee biz
- Refreshments available
- HONEY WEEK HONEY FOR SALE

Have you ever wanted to know more about keeping bees and how honey is made? Wonder no more!

Come to the Honey Festival in the Swan Valley on the 5 May and rub shoulders with local beekeepers. You might even decide to take up beekeeping, we'll show you how!

This event is for everyone. Raffle Prize include one complete starter hives to begin your backyard beekeeping passion.

VENUE: THE HOUSE OF HONEY, SWAN VALLEY
867 Great Northern Highway, Herne Hill, 6056 (Corner of River Rd) Tel: 92963635

CHILDREN'S ACTIVITIES

- ◆ Face Painting
- ◆ Colouring
- ◆ Competitions
- ◆ Learn the Bee
- ◆ Waggle Dance
- ◆ Candle Making

FREE ENTRY AND JAZZ BAND
ENTERTAINMENT

BEEKEEPING TALKS
ENJOY A CHAT WITH A LOCAL BEEKEEPER

11am
GET STARTED IN BEEKEEPING

1pm
ITS NOT JUST HONEY

3pm
BIOSECURITY, WHAT CAN WE DO TO LOOK AFTER OUR BEES?

This event is proudly
sponsored by WA honey
promotions account,
Agricultural Producers
Beekeeper's Committee,
UWA, CIBER and the West
Australian Apiarist Society.

Honey Week is a great opportunity to learn about local beekeepers, their sustainable industry and why we all need to protect our honeybees and forests. During HONEY WEEK 29 April–4 May 11-2pm visit SCITECH to see the honeybee exhibition where you can taste honey, see a live bee display and talk to beekeepers and honeybee scientists.